

WILDLIFE SYMPOSIUM PROGRAM

SATURDAY
12TH NOVEMBER 2022

The SEQ Wildlife Network presents a one-day symposium on wildlife medicine and rehabilitation.

8.30-8.45am

Welcome and housekeeping (RSPCA)

8.45-9.15am

The SEQ Wildlife Hospital Network and Code of Practice (Matthew Harding, DES)

9.15-10.15am

Identification, husbandry and rehabilitation of sea birds (Libby Hall, Taronga Conservation Society, Australia)

10.15-10.35am

Maximising value from your veterinary visit (Bree Talbot, BBWH)

10.35-11.00am - Morning tea

11.00-11.20am

Triaging the wildlife patient (Emma Douglas, AZWH)

11.20am-11.40am

Common presentations in urban bird species (Tim Portas, RSPCA)

11.40am-12.00pm

Diseases, captive care and rehabilitation of marine turtles (Claire Madden, SeaWorld)

12.00-12.20pm

Chlamydiosis in koalas - an overview (Stephanie Shaw, MKRC)

12.20-1.00pm

Koala rehabilitation - key medical and welfare considerations (Ludo Valenza, AZWH)

1.00-1.40pm - Lunch

1.40-2.00pm

Common presentations in short-beaked echidnas (Michael Pyne, CWH)

2.00-2.20pm

Husbandry and rehabilitation of short-beaked echidnas (Karen Scott, Wildcare)

2.20-2.40pm

Important concepts in microbat rehabilitation (Rachel Lyons, Wildcare)

2.40-3.00pm

Common presentations in urban possum species (Claire Phillips, RSPCA)

3.00-3.20pm

Husbandry and rehabilitation of possums and gliders (Rachel Lyons, Wildcare)

3.20-3.40pm - Afternoon tea

3.40-4.00pm

Common presentations in wild reptiles (Rebecca Millers, RSPCA)

4.00-4.20pm

Zoonotic disease considerations in wildlife rehabilitation (Vere Nicholson, Paradise Country)

4.20-5.00pm

Round table discussion - building better collaboration through all phases of wildlife rehabilitation (Tim Portas, RSPCA)

5.00pm - Program finishes